Stewardship: A Way of Life

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, ‘Son of man, I am sending you...’”

Ezekiel 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

Respect

WORD OF LIFE: “O God our creator... through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.”

ST. JOSEPH KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS 'WELCOME BACK TO MASS' SOCIAL:

Like others, the Knights of Columbus are excited that St. Joseph Church is essentially back to pre-pandemic form and that we all are now encouraged to physically participate in Mass at church. Social distancing and masks are not required but continue to be available for those who wish. Congregational singing is now also allowed!

To celebrate this return to near normal and to provide an opportunity for parishioners to get reacquainted, the Knights of Columbus will host a Sandwich and Salad light meal following the 5:45 p.m. Mass on Saturday, July 10th. All are invited.

FIND A CHURCH NEAR YOU! Many families travel during the summer weekends and this app will assist you in finding the nearest Catholic church to your place of camping or vacation. Whenever possible, we should never use vacation or camping as a reason to miss Mass when churches are within a reasonable drive. And these days we are blessed with the technology to make finding a church easy. Call 858-207-6277 to search by zip code. Also, visit www.masstimes.org or download the MassTimes App to find information about the church nearest to your location.

Saint Mary Faith Formation...

Priest says detained migrant children 'hungry' for faith

June 29, 2021

John Lavenburg
NATIONAL CORRESPONDENT

Anderson, a 6-year-old unaccompanied minor from El Salvador, stands in line with other asylum-seeking children in La Joya, Texas, May 14, 2021, as they identify themselves to a Border Patrol agent after crossing the Rio Grande from Mexico. (Credit: Adrees Latif/Reuters, via CNS.)

NEW YORK – For the first time since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, Father Franciscus Asisi Eka Yuantoro was welcomed earlier this month into a government facility for unaccompanied minors in Donna, Texas, to celebrate Mass, which he called a “blessing.”

“The moment that I am able to be with them, it’s special for the children who suffer with anxiety in difficult situations, difficult moments,” Yuantoro told Crux. “I’m very happy for this moment with the children to pray and to talk together with them and celebrate Mass and support them.”

Yuantoro is pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church, which serves about 3,000 Catholic families – part of a total population around 16,500 – in the south Texas city. Nearby he also has a chapel. And that chapel is only a few minutes from a U.S. government facility for unaccompanied minors that cross the U.S.-Mexico border.

The priest was first welcomed to the facility to lead Mass on the first Sunday of the month, June 6. That day he led two Masses in the afternoon that each had about 300 children. The majority of the children, Yuantoro said, were from Guatemala. Others were mostly from Honduras and El Salvador, with some traveling from Ecuador, Panama and Cuba.

From his experience at the Mass and conversations with the children afterwards, he described them as devout Catholics that are “hungry” to celebrate their faith.

“The children were very happy to have Mass and to pray together because they’re hungry for that,” Yuantoro said. “They’re hungry for the spirit. They’re hungry to have somebody to support a spiritual side and they want to know God and to continue.”

The priest said Sister Norma Pimentel, the executive director of Catholic Charities of the Rio Grande Valley, accompanied him to the facility and together they were able to “help the children understand the situation and how to pray.”

Pimentel visited the facility with Bishop Daniel Flores of Brownsville at the end of April. At the time, Pimentel said the facility was approaching it’s 1,500-person capacity; however, she said the conditions were “very good,” and the facility was large and spacious.

Yuantoro echoed those sentiments. He said the facility still follows COVID-19 protocols of masks and social distancing. He also remembers speaking with a 16-year-old boy from Honduras who feels more comfortable at the facility than his home country in part because it provides clothes and an opportunity to learn.

“He was excited to come here to get a better life because of the situation in his country and he was afraid if they would make it and what the situation is but finally to end up here he feels a lot more comfortable in here because they provide everything,” Yuantoro said. Later on, the priest added, the same boy asked him for a blessing for him and his family because of the situation of his family still in Honduras.

In recent months, other Catholic leaders have celebrated Mass for the unaccompanied minors housed in facilities in Texas and California as well. According to its website, between Oct. 1, 2020 and June 3, 2021, U.S. Customs and Border Protection had encountered 78,513 unaccompanied/single minors.

Bishop Mark Seitz of El Paso told a group of over 20 Catholic bishops from the U.S., Mexico and Central America gathered for an emergency immigration summit earlier this month about his experience celebrating Mass for unaccompanied minors almost every week since Easter.

“You see the children wearing their masks day and night, walking in long lines along dusty desert pathways, hundreds and hundreds of kids, most of whom carry trauma from the communities they just completed,” Seitz said. “No staff is allowed to do more than a fist bump with the kids who need a hug in the worst way.”

Bishop Robert McElroy of San Diego told Crux after he led Mass for 1,500 girls and young women at the San Diego Convention Center that part of what makes the situation “tremendously sad” is the fact that they ask questions that couldn’t be answered.

“Am I going to find a home here? Am I going to be able to get to my relatives? All of these different things, which are behind their coming,” McElroy previously told Crux.

Yuantoro said going forward it’s important for all leaders of the Church to recognize the importance of faith to many of the children that enter the country.

“The reality is the children are hungry for the spiritual side and we can really help their faith,” the priest told Crux.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
