Stewardship: A Way of Life

2nd Sunday of Lent

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."

Genesis 15:7

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

WORD OF LIFE: "We are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the 'culture of death' and the 'culture of life'. We find ourselves not only 'faced with' but necessarily 'in the midst of' this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life"

What is the Gospel? The very core of the Gospel can be summed up in four points. First, God freely created men and women out of love and for the sake of love. Every individual human being is known personally and loved intimately by God, who calls each of us to enter into loving relationship with him. Second, because of the original sin of our first parents and because of our own personal sins, we find ourselves alone and far from God, amidst the ruin of suffering and brokenness, unworthy of his infinite love. Third, in his great mercy, God sent his only Son into the world as a man to suffer and die for us in order to heal our wounds and forgive our sins so that we could be reconciled to God and restored to right relationship with him as his beloved sons and daughters. Fourth, the offer of forgiveness and redemption that is available to us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ requires from us the response of faith and the conversion of our hearts and lives so that we might live in lasting friendship with God.

JOURNEY TO THE FOOT OF THE CROSS

10 Things to Remember For Lent

Bishop David L. Ricken of Green Bay, Wisconsin, former chairman of the Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis, offers “10 Things to Remember for Lent”:

1. Remember the formula. The Church does a good job capturing certain truths with easy-to-remember lists and formulas: 10 Commandments, 7 sacraments, 3 persons in the Trinity. For Lent, the Church gives us almost a slogan—Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving—as the three things we need to work on during the season.
2. It's a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.
3. It's a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that's why it gets all the attention. “What are you giving up for Lent? Hotdogs? Beer? Jelly beans?” It's almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.
4. It's a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good, set time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. “I'm going to exercise more. I'm going to pray more. I'm going to be nicer to my family, friends and coworkers.”
5. It's about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it's about more than self-control – it's about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.
6. Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.
7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.
8. Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. “What a bad person I am!” But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.
9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.
10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.

This past Sunday, our RCIA candidates attended the Rite of Election in Waunakee. At this rite, upon the testimony of sponsors and catechists and the catechumens' affirmation of their intention to join the Church, the Church makes its "election" of these catechumens to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. In the presence of Bishop Hying, they inscribe their names in the Book of the Elect at Saint John the Baptist Catholic Church as a pledge of fidelity. Please continue to pray for them as they prepare to be received into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil.

A Note from Our Pastor ...

- ✠ Lent has begun well! Let us devote ourselves to the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In addition, it is good for each of us to “give up” something. Let us repent and return to the Lord, for he is loving and forgiving. In our Lenten Sunday liturgies, we will kneel during the Penitential Rite, chant the “Amen” to some prayers, say the Apostles Creed, and use Eucharistic Prayers Reconciliation #1 and 2. Please, members of both parishes, make an effort to come to the Lenten Confession liturgy on March 24 at 6:30 p.m. at St. Mary. There will be five priests present.
- ✠ Let us pray for peace in Ukraine, and remember that you can contribute to the support of Ukrainian refugees by Catholic Relief Services. You can write checks payable to your parish and indicate “Ukrainian refugees” in the memo section.
- ✠ Thank you to everyone who attended the informational meetings after Masses last weekend at St. Mary, where we shared what we know about the new building project. Thanks to members of the Capital Improvement Committee for leading the meetings.
- ✠ Congratulations to Carlos Aguilar and Gabriela Faubla who were married last weekend at St. Joseph. May God bless you!
- ✠ The Diocese of Madison is hosting a Pro-Life Summit on Saturday, April 2 at Holy Name Heights. Connect with others and support anyone who has needs before, during, and after a pregnancy. Bishop Hying will offer Mass at 9:00 a.m., and speakers will address a potentially Roe-less future. Register at madisondiocese.org/lifesummit
