Stewardship: A Way of Life

3rd Sunday of Easter

“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?”

Luke 24:32

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that’s a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

WORD OF LIFE: “Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. ... Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.”

Week of April 23, 2023

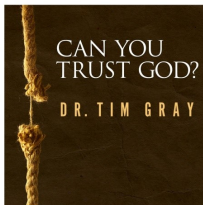

Episode 1: Saint Mark the Evangelist

Just who is St. Mark, the author of this short but action-packed Gospel? Using outside sources, other books of the Bible, and the Gospel itself, Dr. Gray takes a closeup look at St. Mark, and his connection with St. Peter and the Christians of Rome.

Who is St. Catherine of Siena?

In light of St. Catherine of Siena's feast day, join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Elizabeth Klein, as they celebrate this holy woman: a nurse and mystic with papal influence who became a doctor of the Church.

Can You Trust God? by Dr. Tim Gray

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions about God, showing us that there is no reason not to follow him.

LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY!

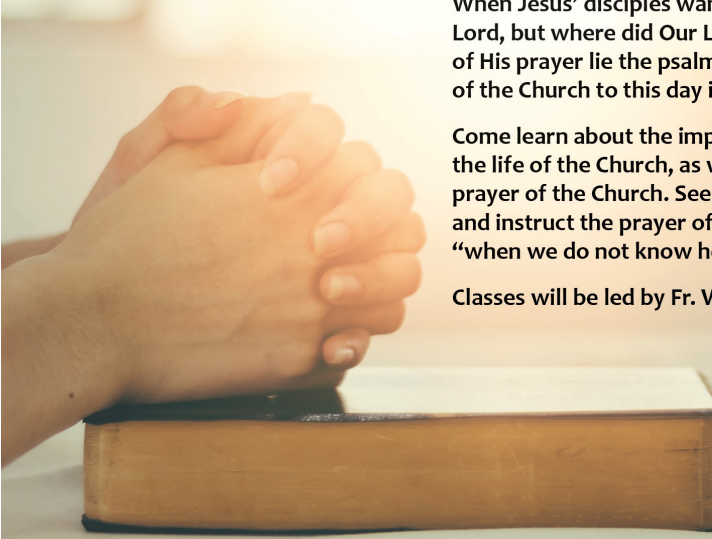

An Introduction to the Liturgy of the Hours

When Jesus' disciples wanted to learn to pray, they went to the Lord, but where did Our Lord Himself learn to pray? At the heart of His prayer lie the psalms, which still are central to the prayer of the Church to this day in the form of the Liturgy of the Hours.

Come learn about the importance of the Liturgy of the Hours in the life of the Church, as well as how to participate in this public prayer of the Church. See how the prayer of Christ can shape and instruct the prayer of your own heart for all those moments "when we do not know how to pray as we ought" (Rom 8:26).

Classes will be led by Fr. Vince Racanelli.

A Note from Our Pastor ...

- ✠ Three European Catholic high school students have been approved as exchange students at Edgerton High School for next school year, and they expressed interest in living with Catholic host families. If anyone is interested in hosting a student, please look at their public profiles posted on the St. Joseph bulletin board or ask our office to email any of them to you.
- ✠ Those who would like to bring Communion to people who are unable to come to church should know that they are required to attend a 90 -minute workshop offered by the Diocese before they can be commissioned. These classes are usually offered every 3-4 months at various churches in the Diocese (schedule is posted on the diocese website), and some are in the Janesville-Madison area, so that you wouldn't have to drive too far.
- ✠ Here is a reminder to anyone who takes Communion to someone under their care. When you visit a church away from home and approach a Communion distributor with hope of receiving a host in your pyx, please go to the priest (as opposed to a layperson who may be distributing). Please inform the priest before Mass that you will be asking him for the Communion. If you come to the priest in the Communion line, and he doesn't know you, he is required to ask you some questions, and he will probably withhold the host and ask you to see him after Mass. Please don't be hurt or feel rejected, but be grateful and know that he is following protocol. He will want to know whether you are commissioned to deliver Communion, and he will want to know that you have a metal pyx, which is the appropriate material for a container bearing the Blessed Sacrament.

Fr. David
